A PRACTICAL SYSTEM of COOKERY.—

BY AN AMERICAN HOUSEWIFE.

We shall commence in The New York Tribuys next week, the publication of a Practical Work on Cookery, prepared by an American lady of great experience, expressly for our readers. Its purpose is not to instruct the feminine public in impossible refinements, and in the preparation of fanciful dishes for which they will never have occasion, but to teach all persons to make the most of the means within their reach, to boil, fry, and rosat meats, and to cook vegetables, and to make desserts in the most palatable, rational, and wholesome manner.

This work will be continued through many weeks; and these who wish to make sure of having it from beginning to end, will do well to subscribe at once, for THE TRIBUNE, either Daily, Semi-Weekly, or Weekly. Terms, Daily, $6; Semi-Weekly, $3; Weekly, $2. Address
